DEATH OF JUDGE HARDY EARLY SUNDAY MORNING

Judge Jacob Hardy died in his apartments at Hotel Lihue shortly after 5 o'clock Sunday morning of the infirmities of old age. Death was not unexpected, his physician, Dr. F. L. Putman, having notified his family and friends some days before that the end might come at any time.

The funeral took place from Lihue Union church at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and was attended by a very large congregation of friends of the deceased from every part of the island. The church for the occasion was beautifully decorated, under the supervision of Mrs. Chas. Rice. Mrs. Isenberg attended to much of the general arrangements. Rev. J. M. Lydgate officiated at the services.

The pall-bearers were: Hon. J. H. Coney, A. Robinson, R. W. T. Purvis, H. D. Wishard, Hon. Chas. A. Rice, Chas. H. Wilcox, Judge Chas. S. Dole, Dr. A. H. Waterhouse, J. K. Farley and Rev. Hans Isenberg.

The late Judge Jacob Hardy was born at Peabody, Mass., in 1827, and graduated from Amherst College in 1849, being a member of the Alpha Delta Phi Society.

Owing to poor health and the suggestion of his physician that he seek a less rigorous climate, he came around the Horn in a sailing vessel in 1849 to Honolulu. A short time later he went to Maui and planted cane in conjunction with a Mr. Gower. Still later he returned to Honolulu and entered the service of the government as a clerk, a position he held until 1854, when he was appointed circuit judge of Kauai.

In 1852 he married Elizabeth M. Andrews, at Honolulu, by whom there were five children. His wife died in 1868, and in December, 1869, he married Mary McLean, there being one child from this union.

The facts of his labors on Kauai are related in an editorial on page 2 of this issue.

Judge Hardy leaves four surviving children, as follows: Mrs. Warren Gregory, Berkeley, Cal.; Walter A. Hardy, Keanae, Maui; Wm. L. Hardy, Hana, Maui; Mrs. M. A. Dean, Lihue.

Deceased was at the time of his death, and for many years before, a member of Lihue Congregational Church and of Amherst Chapter Alpha Delta Phi.

JUDGE COOPER IS UNABLE TO COME

Judge Henry E. Cooper, one of the Honolulu speakers selected for the annual banquet of the Kauai Chamber of Commerce at Hotel Lihue a week from Thursday evening, finds that he will not, owing to a change of plans, be able to attend. The subject assigned to Judge Cooper was "The 1916 Carnival," and it was expected that he would have an interesting address on tap. His place on the program will be taken by another feature and another speaker. The secretary last night received the letter coming via Port Allen:

"My first intention was to accept your invitation to be present on the evening of the 19th as it seemed very opportune for me to meet the members of your Chamber of Commerce. But my plans have changed rapidly during the past few days and I expect to leave for San Francisco on the 12th inst.

"I have been my effort from the first to make the Carnival a territorial affair and to interest the people of all the counties in making it a success.

"After my return the details of the carnival will be more in hand and I will then be able to speak more definitely in regard to my desire for the participation of your good folks in the event.

"Yours very truly,
HENRY E. COOPER,
"Director-General."

To School On Coast

Misses Edith and Juliet Rice, daughters of Senator and Mrs. Chas. A. Rice, will leave on the 17th, for California to enter school at Piedmont, near Berkeley. Senator and Mrs. Rice will also go to California in October, making a tour which will continue until about Christmas.

Mr. Forbes Coming

Chas. R. Forbes, superintendent of public works, will arrive on Kauai next Tuesday to look into various matters in which his department is concerned.

Wishard To Coast

H. D. Wishard, chairman of the Board of Supervisors, will leave on the 27th to join his family on the coast. He will be away for about three months.

To Tour Hawaii

E. H. W. Broadbent, manager, of Grove Farm, with his brother, who is visiting here, will leave shortly for the island of Hawaii for a tour.

Supervisor W. D. McBryde will also tour the Big Island in September.

Accident Board Meets

The Kauai Accident Board met at the county building, Lihue, at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon and approved about twenty-five applications for surety under the Compensation Act. A few insurance papers offered were found not to be in the form prescribed by law and were ordered returned to the insurance agencies direct, with copies of the rulings of the Board respective the filing of insurance policies with applications.

THE SUDDEN DEATH OF DR. THOMPSON

Mrs. Dr. James Malcolm Thompson [nee Miss Maud de Bretteville], with her infant, arrived at the home of her parents in Lihue last Wednesday from California, and the following day—Thursday—received a wireless bearing the unexpected and sad news of the death of her husband in San Francisco, which had occurred that day.

Upon instructions wireless by Mrs. Thompson and her parents, the body has been cremated and the ashes will be brought to Lihue where the funeral will be held probably under Masonic auspices.

Mrs. Thompson, who had come for a visit with relations after an absence of a little more than a year, has thus had her plans shattered; and she will remain in Lihue.

It is a remarkable coincidence that on the day of his death the Territorial Board of Health had appointed him to be government physician at Hana, Maui, and under ordinary circumstances he would have closed up his business at San Francisco and returned to the Islands in a very few weeks.

Dr. Thompson was born in Glasgow, Scotland, and came to the Islands some years ago when quite young. He was a physician at the Queen's hospital in Honolulu for awhile, and assisted Dr. Putman as relief in the Lihue hospital on two occasions, the last time being while Dr. and Mrs. Putman were touring Europe.

He and Miss Maud de Bretteville were married in San Francisco early in July, 1914. They lived for a time in a town near the city, but the doctor's health was not the best there and he recently took up the practice of medicine in the Mission district at San Francisco.

At San Francisco the doctor found it necessary to undergo an operation for a stomachic trouble. Mrs. Thompson wanted to postpone her departure for the Islands until the operation was over, but the doctor did not approve of this and insisted upon her carrying out her plans.

Dr. Thompson was a young man of attractive personality and excellent habits and bore every promise of becoming a leader in his profession. His untimely demise will be much regretted by all of his acquaintances in the Islands.

Hibiscus Display

Mrs. Chas. A. Rice had a most beautiful display of hibiscus blooms on the central show cases of Lihue Store last Wednesday. There were in the lot between fifteen and twenty varieties—a most interesting collection to the fancier of this species of flower.

Baseball Called Off

The baseball games between the Lihues and J. A. C's and the Makawelis and McBrydes were called off Sunday afternoon on account of the death of Judge Jacob Hardy. They will be played next Sunday afternoon at Lihue and Makaweli, respectively.

Anyone Seen Fido?

The Lihue police have been rounding up untagged dogs since yesterday morning. If Fido failed to come home last night, the pound might be the proper place in which to find him.

Meat Prices Soar In London

London—Prices of meats have advanced nearly fifty per cent.

The management of the Krupp gun works offered Roumania thirty-six batteries of field guns if she would allow the free passage of munitions of war through her territory.

The British minister of war used his influence and Roumania declined to take the bait.

COMMITTEEMEN HOLD CONFERENCE

A meeting of the general committee with the chairmen of the regular committees appointed on the Civic Convention was held in the district court room, Lihue, at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Present with the general committee were J. M. Lydgate, chairman of the literary committee; Chas. H. Wilcox, chairman of the committee on lodging and local transportation; J. H. Coney, chairman of the entertainments committee; and J. K. Farley, of the literary program committee.

The literary committee presented its program, which was gone over in detail, discussed and, for the most part, approved. Then was taken up in turn the matters of entertainments, feasts, music, lodging, transportation, etc. It was voted that the chairmen call their respective committees together without delay, arrange all of the minor details and report back to another meeting of chairmen to be called later.

One feature of the meeting not yet referred to in print was a decision to have the stunts of the Honolulu Ad. Club on the evening of Monday, the 27th, if that be agreeable to the Ad. Club itself.

New Steamer Arrives

The steamer Gananan, a new one on this route, arrived at Port Allen yesterday morning from the coast, via Honolulu, bringing 32 tons of freight and a light mail for various Kauai offices. She is taking 42,000 bags of sugar, and will sail tomorrow afternoon for Kaanapali, Maui.

Water For Koloa

Koloa plantation will begin this week receiving its regular supply of water through the tunnel and ditch system put through to and upon that estate by Lihue Plantation. This marks the end of Koloa's water troubles, and ensures the success of the plantation from a productive standpoint, for all time.

Indian Pictures

Lihue was treated Saturday evening to a series of Indian war pictures, preceded by Indian dancers put on by a Cherokee named Chief Hailstorm. The entertainment was put on in Hale Hooni, and had practically a full house. The pictures are being presented in all of the theaters of the island. These pictures are meant to show as nearly exactly as possible how historical battles were carried out, and have the approval of famous officers of the Indian campaigns.

Poppycock

The Garden Island, with no saloons on it, is a wonderful example of how booze can be obtained anywhere one goes—provided the price is forthcoming. And yet the Kauai newspaper points the finger of scorn at Ko'ala!

Lihue's New Theater

The statement is made that Lihue's fine, new theater will be ready by the last of the year at the outside and possibly in time for the Christmas holidays. Some alterations (by way of improvement) are being made in the plans.

Singing Contest A Tie

At the church hoiki in Anahola Sunday a very interesting circumstance developed in the singing contest, which was for a prize, silver cup. The singing was all so good that the judges were wholly unable to reach a decision, and finally concluded the contest to be a "draw." It was decided to have the competition over again at the December hoiki.

The crowd was very large and the convention was a great success in every way.

MONUMENT FOR THE LATE JUDGE HARDY

A movement was started late yesterday at the Waimea end of the island to provide a splendid monument for the grave of the late Judge Jacob Hardy, the money for the same to be raised by popular subscription over Kauai. The Waimea people point out that owing to the extraordinarily efficient and faithful services of Judge Hardy over a period of so many years, such a testimonial from Kauai citizens would be most fitting.

Judge C. B. Hofgaard, of Waimea, is taking an active, personal interest in furthering the object at the Waimea side.

Following a telephonic discussion of the matter last night with citizens of various towns it was decided that the subject be brought up, also, at the banquet-session of the Chamber of Commerce a week from Thursday evening, with a view to securing the endorsement of the leading business men of the island.
